A year in review...

Hard to believe that 2020 is already over. It seems like it only just begun. Despite the pandemic, we've made a lot of changes at Green Forest Library this year. In the last twelve months, we've....

- begun offering hotspots to check out
- implemented a home delivery service
- built an outdoor pavilion
- hired a new Spanish Outreach Coordinator
- got a new website and library software
- offered a way to get a library card online
- added a coffee bar and lounge area
- bought a 3D printer
- offered book/movie bundles
- begun offering online story time
- started a virtual crochet/knitting meeting
- developed an online quilt-a-long project
- continued to follow CDC guidelines to ensure your health and safety
Request Book or Movie Bundle now!

We're now offering themed book bundles. We'll hand-pick books or movies based on your criteria and have the books ready for you to take home when you arrive. No more getting lost in the stacks trying to find that perfect book!

These are available for patrons of all ages. They're groups of 3-5 books of a specific topic or genre.

Just call the library and tell us what kinds of books you like, and we'll get you set up with new items.

2021 Reading Challenge

- Read at least 21 books this year.
- Each month we’ll have a list of 5 different types of books.
- Pick 2 from the list! Keep track of them on your own.
- Bonus points if you write a book review for our library catalog. (Ask the librarians how to do this!)

1. A book that is also a movie/tv show
2. An (auto)biography
3. A book about a social issue
4. An author who uses initials
5. A 2020 bestseller
